

Christmas
& NEW YEAR

BURLEIGH
COURT

A Christmas Masquerade

Twelvemonth of foul fever in thrice lockdown alas,
Craving yuletides of yore when did gatherings amass.

But pray thee unsullied and in fine fettle be,
That hereupon mirth with thine kinfolk ye'll see.

Pray feast at our table, but look courtly we ask -

Obscuring thy guise by so wearing a mask.

No more put asunder - but in merriment attend!

Once more sat together, and our memories append.

Party Nights

We ask your presence at our lavish ball –
a pageant that will guests enthral.
Pray wear a mask, and wear it well,
for thy true tide must not ye tell!

Be gone malaise and trials of yester,
regaled by minstrel and court jester.
Feasted on fare and wine ye'll be to Waltz the night in high revelry.
